FaithBridge Foundation Accredited by National Financial Accountability Organization

LOUISVILLE, CO – The ECFA (Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability) announced today the accreditation of FaithBridge Foundation of Louisville, CO.

ECFA accreditation is based on the ECFA Seven Standards of Responsible Stewardship™, including financial accountability, transparency, sound board governance and ethical fundraising.

FaithBridge Foundation joins a growing number of Christ-centered churches and ministries across America, supported by over 27 million donors that have earned the right to display the ECFA seal. When an organization is accredited by ECFA, it demonstrates its willingness to follow the model of biblical accountability.

“We are pleased to accredit a ministry committed to provide the opportunity to maximize Christian charitable goals through sound management of the financial gifts with which it has been entrusted,” said Dan Busby, president of ECFA.

Founded in 2008, FaithBridge Foundation (<http://faithbridgefoundation.org/>) seeks to share the charitable gifts which they have been entrusted in a manner worthy of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work that all involved may increase in their knowledge of God and his purposes.

To learn more about FaithBridge Foundation and their stewardship opportunities, visit ServantMatch®, ECFA's program that matches God's servants with the stewardship options of ECFA members based on ministry sectors and categories. It is ECFA's newest online feature that allows you to quickly and easily find giving opportunities.

ECFA, founded in 1979, provides accreditation to leading Christian nonprofit organizations that faithfully demonstrate compliance with the ECFA Standards pertaining to financial accountability, fundraising and board governance.
